

The 1961 Rice Homecoming!

Game, Dance, Concert To Make Full Weekend

By FRYAR CALHOUN

Lured by football, the Four Freshmen, and a desire to see if Rice is really the same, a large number of alumni return to the Willie Rice Marsh today for Homecoming 1961.

The judging of campus decorations kicks off the weekend, which will feature such varied attractions as the Rice-Arkansas grudge match, an outstanding rocket scientist, an old-time minstrel, Saturday night's semi-formal dance in Galveston, and a special Sunday night concert.

DR. NILS L. Muench, chief scientist of the Army Rocket and Guided Missile Agency, Redstone, Alabama, will speak at the 7:30 alumni dinner tonight on "Missile Warfare in the Pre-Lunar

Meanwhile, many Riceites will attend the second annual Hanszen College Black Edge Minstrel in Hamman Hall at 8:00 p.m. At the same time, the Rice Lightweight Footballers play Monterrey, Mexico, in Rice Stadium.

Alumni activities hold the spotlight Saturday morning with Dr. Sanford W. Higginbotham, Dean of Student Activities, featured speaker; but students will have to face the usual ordeal of Saturday classes.

BETWEEN THE halves of Saturday's game, the Homecoming Queen will be announced and crowned. Finalists are Tess Lindsey, senior English major, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lindsey of Texas City; Mary Ann Calkins, senior French major from Houston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Calkins; Sue Shepherd, senior French major and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Shepherd of Oklahoma City; and junior English major Elizabeth Embry, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Embry of McAllen.

Alums and students will gather in front of the Rice Gym at 7:00 p.m. tonight for the "Beat Arkansas" bonfire and pep rally.

The Rice Student Association will sponsor the Homecoming Dance in Galveston's Moody Center Saturday night from 8:30 p.m.-12:30 a.m.

TICKETS ARE $4 per couple and provide for admission to the Four Freshmen concert Sunday night.

Jerry Coker, the Sam Houston State Houstonians, and a vocalist whose looks are legend, will provide the music at the dance. Ice will be 50c per bucket and set-ups are 25c per can.

Dr. Catherine Savage, Advisor to Women, has announced that there will be no late permissions for Jones girls during the weekend.

Winding up the weekend, the nationally-famous Four Freshmen will present a concert in the Grand Hall of the Memorial Center Sunday night at 8:00 p.m. Admission is only through Homecoming Dance tickets, and there will be no reserved seats.

WHICH ONE . . . Here are Mary Ann Calkins and Elizabeth Embry, one of whom might be crowned Homecoming Queen tomorrow afternoon.
