

Back Stage Crew Set for 'Arsenic'

Work has begun on the Rice Players' production of "Arsenic and Old Lace," which has moved into Hammon Hall, replacing the SLLS' "Peyton's Lace." "Arsenic" will be presented on November 16 and 17.

The cast will be LaJuana Osborn, Aunt Martha; Syd Nathans,

Officer O'Hara; Kathy McConnell, Aunt Abby; Robert Wehing, Rev. Dr. Harper; Martin McClain, Teddy; Joe Rider, Officer Brophy; Pat Jones, Elaine Harper; Jim McCaslin, Mortimer Brewster; Joe Binford, Mr. Gibbs; Jim Kuttler, Jonathan Brewster; Arnold Victor, Dr.

Einstein; Max Turner, Lt. Rooney; and Tom Preston, Mr. Witherspoon.

The director, Mrs. Anita Wells, will be assisted by Anne Witte. Stage Manager Jack Bond will be assisted by Mary Kay Hawkes.

The backstage crews are as follows: Properties, headed by Joe Rider and Anne Witte, Mary Kay Hawkes, Max Jodeit, Ray Ruhlen, and consultant Mary Claire Peden; Prompter, Claire Plunguian; Publicity, headed by Roy Roussel with Les Arnold and Buddy Herz for the Houston papers; Mary Lou Sauer and Darragh Feritta for campus posters; Costumes, Claire Plunguian, Mary Kay Hawkes, Anne Witte, and consultant Mary Claire Peden; Makeup, Ann Shanblum, chief, Martin McClain, Jim McCaslin, and John Murphy.

Sets will be designed by Jim McCaslin and Ginger Purington. In charge of construction are Jack Bond, Max Turner, Jerry Morgan, Bill Heyck, Ray Ruhlen, Joe Rider, Max Jodeit, and Les Arnold. John Shanblum will be in charge of tickets, and programs with Suzy Rhodes and Carol Dzury. D. G. Kobs will sell tickets in the lounge.