

DAHSHA:
Dialogues Across Health, Science, Humanities, and Archives

Volume 1, 2024

Permanent URI for this collection: <https://hdl.handle.net/1911/115333>

TABLE OF CONTENTS

THEMED ISSUE: RADIATION EVENTS AND EFFECTS

Front Matter

Editorial

Melissa A. Bailar, Kim Dunn,
Philip L. Montgomery,
Tomoko Y. Steen, and Armin Weinberg, with contributions from
Rishi V. Shridharan

ARTICLES

Reporting Exposure: The Midwives of Nagasaki

Clint Wilson

Living in the Nuclear Age: A Course for Medical Students Outlining Key Aspects of Medicine and Health Effects

Wayne X. Shandera

HOUSTON-SEMIPALATINSK PARTNERSHIP

Experiences, Observations, and Recommendations
Related to Visits to the Semey Region of Kazakhstan from the Perspective of a Hospital Administrator

Randall P. Wright

The Houston-Semipalatinsk Healthcare
Partnership: A Lesson in Science Diplomacy

Larry Laufman, Sara Rozin, Rishi V. Shridharan, and Armin Weinberg

Student Perspective

The Value of Interviews in Representing the Long-Term Effects of Radiation in Kazakhstan

Annika Nambiar

VIEWPOINT ESSAY

An Overview of the Nuclear Age

Tom Kean

For more information on DAHSHA: Dialogues Across Health, Science, Humanities, and Archives, visit the journal's website: <https://dahsha.blogs.rice.edu/>.

Editorial Board

Melissa A. Bailar, Lead Editor

Kim Dunn, Editor

Philip L. Montgomery, Editor

Tomoko Y. Steen, Editor

Armin Weinberg, Editor

Brooke Clark, Managing Editor

Manshi Patel, Journal Assistant